

Revenue Development Area
Codes Discontinued
Effective January 1, 2010

Effective January 1, 2010, the Revenue Development Area (RDA) codes listed below will no longer be used. Please review the following chart to determine which location code(s) your business should use. This location code change is a reporting change only; the rate has not changed.

RDAs are authorized by Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 39.102.090 and were created to track sales within certain areas so those areas could receive state funding to assist with community revitalization. ESSB 5901 removed the requirement to use a separate location code when reporting retail sales within an RDA.
