New B&O tax exemption for services covered by a Qualified Washington Health Benefit Exchange health plan

Starting Jan. 1, 2021, health care providers are exempt from business and occupation (B&O) tax on services performed for patients covered by a qualified health plan offered by a health carrier who contracts with the Washington Health Care Authority.

What is exempt?

Amounts received by a health care provider for services covered by a qualified health plan offered under RCW 41.05.410 are exempt from B&O tax. This includes:

- Reimbursements received from the qualified health plan.
- Any amounts collected from the patient as part of the patient's cost-sharing obligation.

How do I claim the B&O tax exemption?

You must report amounts received under the appropriate B&O tax classification. These may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Service and Other Activities.
- Service and Other Activities ($1 million or greater in prior year).
- Public or Nonprofit Hospitals (RCW 82.04.260).
- For Profit Hospitals (WAC 458-20-168).

You must then claim a deduction under Qualified Washington Health Benefit Exchange Plans equal to the amount covered by a qualified health plan.
